

U VOLUTION

DR. DAVID ZELMAN

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Success & Fulfillment Coach To High Performers

Overview: As founder and president of Transitions Institute, Inc., Dr. David Zelman has served as corporate shrink and business coach to millionaires, billionaires, royalty and other top professionals who want to bridge the gap between professional accomplishment and personal satisfaction. His unique approach to fully expressing one's humanity has empowered people to step beyond what is predictable and create truly extraordinary lives.

His national and international practice includes Fortune 500 companies and numerous private individuals. He is an annually returning faculty member at MIT's "Gathering of Titans" for successful entrepreneurs and business owners. He has also trained or coached in excess of 20,000 individuals. David's process guides people on a powerful journey of self-discovery and freedom; freedom from one's past limitations and freedom to intentionally express life in a manner that reflects one's core values and personal commitments.

Key Achievements:

- Notable Educational Contributions: David is an annually returning faculty member at MIT's "Gathering of Titans," a prestigious event for successful entrepreneurs and business owners.
- Innovative Coaching Approach: He has introduced a distinctive method that emphasizes fully expressing one's humanity, empowering individuals to transcend predictability and craft extraordinary lives.
- High-Profile Clientele: His practice has attracted national and international clients, including Fortune 500 companies, royalty and billionaires.